Acceptable and responsible computer use in Class 5

Class 5 have been reviewing our acceptable and responsible use of computers agreements this week. These are necessary to keep us safe and to ensure that computers are used for learning correctly. Here are some slides that show our understanding:

Give all mobile phones to the secretary

If you bring a mobile phone to school you must every morning give to the office. Also before you give to the office you must put your phone on silent. If you go to breakfast club you can't have your phone while you're eating to play games or take pictures to post on social media. Whereas don't worry you will get your phone back at the end of the day. Plus when you do go to breakfast club you must go straight to the office to give your phone. When you give your phone to the office they will put it inside a box assigned to your class so don't worry your phone will be alright.

What you should not do. 🗨️ -Kehinde

- Don't go on random websites during a lesson
- Don't sign into other people's chromebooks
- Don't damage the ipads or chromebooks.
- Don't search random images
- Keep your username and password to yourself.
- Don't use the slides comments to talk about different work or argue.
- Don't kick people out of slides.

Going on websites you shouldn't go on

Going on websites you should not go on is breaking a rule. You are only allowed to go on websites that are work related. You can not just go on a scratch game in the middle of a lesson.
